LABEL 5 RELEASES NEW GOLD HERITAGE PACKAGING DESIGN

LABEL 5 introduces a new giftbox for the latest creation of its premium range, the Gold Heritage

The new packaging conveys an elegant and premium look through the predominance of gold. The aim is to increase shelf visibility and consumer attention with refinement and modernity. The luxurious carafe is enhanced thanks to a wider place on the front and back, due to an auto-reverse design. Colours and reflections are sublimated by an ingenious game of lights and contrasts with the trendy "taupe" color. The packaging reflects perfectly the warm and inviting atmosphere of whisky tasting moments and embodies all the care and attention brought by the Master Blender, Graham Coull.

Awarded many times and more recently this year with two Gold awards at the International Spirits Competition and Scotch Spirits Masters, in addition to a Silver medal during the 6th challenge to the Best French Wines & Spirits for Asia, Gold Heritage can look to the future with confidence!

LABEL 5 Gold Heritage has been created by Graham Coull, LABEL 5 Master Blender, who crafted a unique and rich blend to delight Scotch whisky lovers, looking to explore LABEL 5's character in more depth.

LABEL 5 Gold Heritage is a generous blend of exceptional whiskies that includes aged malts. Created with passion and care, LABEL 5 Gold Heritage presents a unique profile which lays between the smoky and peated flavours of the old malts whiskies and the creamy vanilla notes of the grain whiskies. The smooth character which is the trademark of LABEL 5 whiskies has been accentuated with subtle woody hints and spicy notes.

"LABEL 5 Gold Heritage is a personal achievement for me. Building on the traditions of LABEL 5, I have handselected whiskies from different ages and casks which marry together to produce a wonderfully balanced blend. The result is an exceptionally smooth whisky loaded with fruit, spice, warm vanilla oak and subtle smoke, which offers a unique taste experience." said Graham Coull.
